The Blind Man Sprang Up And Came To Jesus

A Blind Runner

Here's a simple experiment to try: go out into your backyard or into a park. Close your eyes and run in any direction. How far do you think you would get? Maybe a matter of a few feet before you stumble into something, a tree, a bush, a rock, or another person. The whole thing sounds impossible, but that is precisely what happens in today's Gospel. Jesus is passing through Jericho, one of the lowest spots on earth. It is an oasis surrounded by desert, rocks and mountains. It is a stop-over on the route to Jerusalem. Suddenly a blind man clamors for Jesus' attention. The lord calls him to come to him. Instantly the man jumps up and runs to Christ. Jesus tells the man that his faith has already given him the power to see what the crowd does not. Immediately the man follows Jesus' way...to the cross.

Parish Life

All Saints Day Nov. 1—Mass will be celebrated on Friday at 6pm in English, and 7:30pm in Spanish. Incense will be used at both Masses. Reminder: this is a holy day of obligation.

Remembering the Faithful Departed—On November 2 we celebrate the Day of the Faithful Departed. It is not a day of celebration but a day of prayer and remembrance for all the departed. We will be adding a table to the prayer room near the votive candles to honor our loved ones who have died before us. Please feel free to add the names of the deceased in the book near the table. You can place a photo or item of remembrance of your loved one on the table. We ask that you please write a name and number for your items to be returned once the table is taken down.

Feast of St. Elizabeth of Hungary—Come celebrate the patron of our parish on Sunday, Nov. 17. We will begin with Holy Hour at 3pm followed by a potluck dinner. Join us in prayer, bring your favorite dish, and enjoy fellowship

Luminaries Deadline Next Weekend—Nov. 3 is the deadline for returning envelopes to honor the deceased. To remember your loved one(s), please put the name(s) of the deceased on the luminary envelope and put it in the collection next weekend. Luminaries will line the sidewalks at church on the evening of Saturday, Nov. 9. Donations support the youth group's activities..

Food and Fellowship Next Weekend — The evangelization team (E-team) will provide fellowship time after Masses next weekend. Plan to stay a few minutes and enjoy time together.

Phones on Mute — Please remember to put your phone on mute during Mass. Thank you!
